Scripture/Discussion Questions

1. Have you ever gone without something in order to be able to set aside money to give to the Lord's work?
2. What is something you could live without-for a while or forever-in order to help you be able to set aside funds to be more generous?
3. Why do you think seeking first the Kingdom of God will help us experience our own needs being met?
4. What is on way that God has shined light in the darkness for you when it comes to finances, possessions, living generously, and helping others?
